The Florida Emergency Preparedness Association (FEPA) was created in 1956 to help professional Emergency Managers work to protect the people of Florida. With more than 600 members from local, regional, state, federal, and tribal organizations, FEPA is Florida's Premier Association of Emergency Managers.

The FEPA Student Membership Category is specifically designed for individuals dedicated to pursuing a full-time emergency management course of study at a higher education institution. To be eligible for this category, individuals must not be already employed in an emergency management related field.
